MESSAGE FROM THE PRIME MINISTER

JMC ACADEMY ULTIMO CAMPUS OPENING

I congratulate the JMC Academy on the official opening of its new $30 million purpose-built Ultimo campus.

In the intensely competitive and globalised world of tertiary education, construction of this new campus is an important part of the Academy's blueprint for future success.

This facility is an investment in preparing the most highly skilled, innovative and experienced graduates for the creative industries jobs of the future.

It will ensure Australia continues to strengthen its reputation in the entertainment technology industry. It will also help to boost our international competitiveness which is so critical to building a stronger economy.

I send my best wishes to JMC Academy's staff and students attending this official opening ceremony.
